

08.00–09.00	REGISTRATION
09.00–09.30	Welcome to the JCN/GPN study day and exhibition
09.30–10.15 SESSION 1	The impact of non-healing wounds and how to optimise a patient's ability to heal Dawn Stevens, National Clinical Development Manager, Haartmann	 HARTMANN Helps. Cares. Protects.
10.15–11.00 SESSION 2	Assess, prepare, treat: why is wound preparation so important? Simon Barrett, Tissue Viability Nurse Specialist, East Ridings and Yorkshire	 Coloplast
11.00–11.40	COFFEE/TEA BREAK
11.40–12.25 SESSION 3	More barriers to wound healing: focus on exudate, infection and biofilm Jo Wilkins, Clinical Strategy Manager, ConvaTec	  ConvaTec
12.25–13.10 SESSION 4	Hidradenitis Suppurativa: seen but not heard of Alison Schofield, Honorary TVN, York Hospitals; Clinical Manager, Mole Digital	 Daylong DIRECT.
13.10–14.10	LUNCH
14.10–14.55 SESSION 5	Dementia and incontinence: exploring the myths and reflecting on how to improve outcomes Zena Aldridge, Admiral Nurse Research Fellow, Dementia UK	 UROLOGY &amp; CONTINENCE CARE TODAY
14.55–15.40 SESSION 6	Nutrition and wound healing Alison Schofield, Honorary TVN, York Hospitals; Clinical Manager, Mole Digital	JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY NURSING JCN